WriteWatchers

WriteWatchers is a birthing ministry that thrusts writers into published authors. We provide support and guidance to Christian writers that enable them to turn their dream of publishing books into a reality. This program provides step by step guidance that will ultimately lead every writer into a place of success and accomplishment to ensure that their hidden story will not go to the grave. Many people in the Body of Christ have ideas, visions and dreams however most of them never come to pass. WriteWatchers aid in making the unattainable, attainable and the unreachable, reachable.
